The danger for the Poles, the dispatch intimates, lies largely in a lack of organization and the existence of rivalries between the white and red guards for the defense of the city.

Russian Peace Terms Are Outlined

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON—Leo Karamanoff, Russian soviet emissary here, sent Premier Lloyd George today an outline of the terms which soviet Russia is laying down for an armistice with Poland.

The first of these terms, the outline shows, is that the strength of the Polish army shall be reduced to one annual contingent of 50,000 men, together with the army command, and an "army of administration" (apparently a permanent force) to aggregate 10,000 men.

The second of the terms is that demobilization of the Polish army shall occur within one month.

The third condition is that all arms, excluding those needed for the army forces specified, shall be handed to soviet Russia and the Ukraine. Other terms are:

Fourth: All war industries shall be demobilized.

Fifth: No troops or war material shall be allowed to come from abroad.

Sixth: The line of Wolkowisk, Bialystok, and Praweow shall be placed fully at the disposal of Russia for commercial transit to and from the Baltic.

Seventh: The families of all Polish citizens killed, wounded or incapacitated in the war shall be given land free. On the other hand the terms for Russia are:

First: Simultaneously with the Polish demobilization, the Russian and Ukrainian troops shall withdraw from the Polish front.

Second: Upon the termination of these operations, the number of Russian frontier line shall be considerably reduced and fixed at a figure to be agreed upon.

The armistice line shall be the status quo, but not further east than the line indicated in the July 20 note of Earl Curzon, the British foreign secretary. The Polish army shall withdraw to a distance of fifty versts from that line, the zone between the two lines being neutral.

Fourth: The final frontier of the independent state of Poland shall be in the main indicated by the line indicated in Lord Curzon's note but additional territory shall be given Poland on the east in the regions of Bialystok and Chelm.

Wages Are Raised

CHICAGO — The United States railway labor board today handed down a decision increasing wages of employees of the American Railway Express Co. $30,000,000 yearly.

Eighty thousand men not provided for by the recent $500,000,000 railway wage award are affected.

The award is retroactive to May 1, 1920. The wage increase, amounting to 16 cents an hour, will give messengers and other train service employees an increase of $38.40 a month. All other employees will receive an increase of $32.64.

Train service employees work on a 240 hour month basis while all other employees work on a 204 hour basis.

Unions Affected

The four unions affected by the board's decision are: The Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees; the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Stablemen and Helpers of America; the railway express drivers, chauffeurs and conductors, local number 128 of C. I. O.; the order of railway expressmen.

Presidents of the express unions who were present when the award was handed down, were non-committal on the subject of its acceptability, but the general impression was that the labor board had been slightly more generous than either the unions or the express company had anticipated. Two of the unions had demanded increases of $51 per month, while the other two asked an increase of $35 monthly.

The Brotherhood of railway and steamship clerks, freight handlers, express and station employees will hold a grand lodge meeting here today to pass on the award. About 68,000 of the 80,000 express employees are said to be members of this union.

The summer school of community leadership will be opened on Monday. The students, of whom there will be nearly 300, will begin to arrive on Friday and Saturday, though the bulk of them will come in on Sunday. As most of them will be accompanied by their wives or others, the entire party will number more than 500. Nearly every state in the union will be represented.

The staff and students will be housed in the fraternity houses of the university. The program for the summer school will be completed within a day or so, some of the students having been held up in anticipation of the attendance of several men of national reputation.

WASHINGTON — Recommendations that express rates be increased $30,000,000 to absorb the wage award announced today by the railroad labor board will be filed with the interstate commerce commission, it was announced today by T. B. Harrison, general counsel for the American Railway Express Co.

The express company already has before the commission an application for rate increases approximating $72,000,000 to meet increased costs aside from advanced wages and should all of its recommendations be adopted by the commission express charges would be increased so as to produce a total of more than $100,000,000 added revenue annually.

MAN SENTENCED TO FIFTY YEARS WILL ASK PARDON

Frank Engman, Convicted of Assault, Appeals to Philipp

Under a sentence of 50 years, Frank Engman, inmate of the state prison seeking pardon from Gov. Philipp, has one of the longest definite terms it is possible for a prisoner to have in Wisconsin. Rardon day comes Wednesday.

Engman was convicted at Superior May 8, 1918, on two counts, for assault and robbery. The fact that he was armed and other aggravating circumstances resulted in the maximum sentence of 25 years on each count. This is more than the total sentences of the ten others whose cases are set for the same day.

Milwaukee is represented by five cases, La Crosse by two, and Merrill, Oshkosh, Superior, and Alma by one each. There are none involving Madison men. Only one woman, Josephine Fodor, Milwaukee, serving three years for larceny, is included.

REjuvenation French Monkey-Gland Surgeon Performs First Operation in United States.

CHICAGO—Dr. Serge Voronoff, noted French surgeon, who claims to be able to rejuvenate old persons by transplanting to them the intestinal glands of monkeys, performed his first operation of the kind in the United States here Monday.

The operation, however, was on animals, and not humans. Several hundred doctors attended the clinic. Dr. Voronoff probably will not operate on humans while in this country, he said, because of the shortage of desirable specimens of antitoxin apes from which to take the glands.

COMMITTEE ELECTED ON PARK PLAN

Major O'Connell Appoints Four to Consider Memorial

Proposed Monona Lake Park Wins Enthusiasm of Investigators

Oscar Toebeas, Major Dudley Montgomery, Glenn Stephens, and Dr. R. C. Montgomery were appointed this morning by Major George F. O'Connell, American Legion post commander, to act with the memorial committee, consisting of Father P. B. Johnson, Charles Woldenberg and Capt. Charles E. Butters, as a special committee to investigate the proposed memorial park. The committee will make its investigations as soon as possible and report its findings back to the legion.

A strong sentiment in favor of a park as an ever living memorial to Madison's war heroes, in preference to a monument or building, is evinced by persons from all walks of life and residing in all quarters of the city, whether affected materially by the project or not.

The proposed park would begin at Elmdale or Front park, as it is called, and extend for more than a mile around the shore of Lake Monona in a north-westerly direction, including in its scope some of the most beautiful lake shore that Madison boasts.

The city already owns the 2,000 feet of lake shore called Front Park, and the remaining land is owned by M. B. Olbrich, assistant attorney general. A part of Mr. Olbrich's land lies rather high above the lake edge which is fringed with fine old trees, and extends back to Lakeland ave. the depth being about five lots. This land is hilly and well sprinkled with large shade trees, an ideal spot for picnics. It can lay claim to two of the largest hickory trees in this part of the country, as well as some fine elms and birch elders, and commands a magnificent view of the lake and surrounding country.

Lying almost directly west of this, along the north shore of Monona, is the rest of the land proposed for the park. It lies much lower and on both sides of Atwood ave., extending about 1,500 feet beyond the city limits. The shore here has one of the finest, if not the best bathing beach on any of the lakes. The sand is fine and almost white like that of the ocean, and would afford good and safe bathing for the hundreds of little ones.

At approximately the center of this beach the depths are as follows:

50	feet out—16 inches.
100	" "—18 "
200	" "—19 "
300	" "—20 "
400	" "—24 "
500	" "—24 "
600	" "—26 "
700	" "—26 "
800	" "—28 "
900	" "—30 "
1,000	" "—42 "
1,100	" "—7 feet.

It will be seen from these figures that a little child could wade out some 400 feet, while children a little older can wade out a thousand feet. At 1,100 feet, however, there comes a sheer drop to seven feet, indicating a deep basin.

Would Fill In Shore

It is proposed to fill in 300 feet into the lake for a distance of about 2,000 feet along the shore still leaving a good bathing shore, and affording, at the same time, a fine green sward, a bit of beauty and a convenient place for bathers and picnickers. The expense of filling out, it is estimated, would not be a very large one because the water is shallow and the sand of such a quality that it will not slide back, but stay firmly packed. It has been suggested that a line of boulders might be placed at the proposed distance from the shore, making the filling in process much easier. Marshy land around the shore could also be filled in easily, it is said; because, unlike the soil of Brittingham and Vilas parks, which is known as marl, that around Monona is sandy, and sand will stay where put.

The proposed park would be about 150 acres in area, the largest in the city, for the pleasure of a few.

(By the Associated Press)

WOULD DISBAR ATTY. GEWEKE

Bar Association Charges Lack of Requisite Qualifications

Disbarment proceedings were started in Wisconsin supreme court today against Julius Geweke, Water-town, on complaint of the Wisconsin Bar Assn. A petition has been served upon Mr. Geweke by the court for an order to show cause as to why his certificate should not be cancelled. The matter has been set for argument on Sept. 21. Only once before in the history of the court has such a proceeding been instituted.

Geweke was admitted to practice law in Wisconsin supreme court on Aug. 12, 1919. The action against him asking that his certificate be cancelled and that his name be stricken from the roll of lawyers of Wisconsin is signed by the members of Bar Examiners board, composed of Wm. R. Bagley, Madison, president; L. J. Rusk, Chippewa Falls, secretary; Lewis Quarles, Milwaukee; S. H. Cady, Green Bay; and Wm. M. Steele of Superior. The petition declares that Geweke "was admitted to the bar of said court although not possessing the requisite qualifications."

Arguments on the matter will be heard on Sept. 21, the opening day of Supreme Court. The order asked Geweke to "show cause why his certificate to practice law should not be annulled and his name stricken from the roll of attorneys."

At the opening of supreme court on Sept. 21, arguments will be had on the first 35 cases on the August calendar. Sessions of the court will be held an hour earlier this year.

TAX BURDEN BIG; LABOR MAY REVOLT

Labor Bodies Unite to Prevent Allied Action Against Soviet

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON—The opening words of Premier Lloyd George's announcement in the house of commons today with regard to the Russo-Polish crisis.

The house was crowded and the tension was high in anticipation of the premier's "peace or war" statement. As he entered he was warmly cheered.

M. Krassin and Kamenoff of the Russian soviet delegations, here, were in the strangers' gallery.

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON — Great Britain has been given a few anxious days as a result of the Polish situation. No body in this country wants another war. Not only has England no soldiers to send, but the whole nation is tired of war and overburdened with taxation.

That Mr. Lloyd George's policy toward the bolshevik will eventually triumph in this country seems assured by the strong attitude taken by labor. There is no question that the labor leaders are entirely in earnest, and there is every indication they will be supported by the workers of England if they seek to enforce by a general strike their demand that the country shall not be committed to further war-like enterprises.

Labor Makes Threat

LONDON — War between the allied powers and soviet Russia over Poland would be "an intolerable crime against humanity," and British labor has warned the British government that organized labor will be used to defeat such a war. This decision was reached at a meeting of the most prominent leaders of British labor, who later issued the following statement:

"This conference feels certain that war is being engineered between the allied powers and soviet Russia on the issue of Poland and says that such a war would be an intolerable crime against humanity."

Wars Government

"It therefore warns the government that the whole industrial power of the organized workers will be used to defeat this war."

It was resolved by the conference to "take such steps as may be necessary to carry the above decision into effect."

The statement advised all labor organizations to be prepared to send their leaders to London "to instruct their members to lay down their tools."

"A committee of action" appointed by the meeting will see Premier Lloyd George. The conference, which represented the whole field of labor, is regarded as having presented an ultimatum to the government threatening direct action.

Hold Many Meetings

Workmen held meetings in many of the manufacturing towns of the country notably at Liverpool, Glasgow, Manchester and Nottingham, and protested against a war to help Poland. A feature of the London meeting, which was held in Hyde Park, was the presence of several representatives of organizations of former soldiers.

A general strike in all the principal organized industries was advocated in resolutions adopted at several meetings.

The Independent Liberals held a meeting in the House of Commons last night and passed a resolution protesting against any intervention against Russia by way of blockade, men, money or munitions.

BUSTER BROWN IS HERE

Madison kiddies are due for a real treat.

Buster Brown and his dog Tige are in the city and they are eager to meet all of their juvenile admirers. They will be at the Blind & Sander shoe store, 217 State st., from 10 to 11 a. m. Wednesday, ready to meet all Madison children.

Buster, who is already over 70 years in age, but still under four feet in height, will give souvenirs and presents to all his young friends. Everyone is invited to drop in and have a chat with these old time favorites.

Nearly 500 retail shoe dealers of Wisconsin were crowded into the assembly chamber at the state capitol this afternoon when Gov. E. L. Philipp began his address of welcome to the convention of the Wisconsin Shoe Retailers' association.

Attendance figures went soaring this morning when more than 800 early arrivals were on hand for registration. With great numbers expected on the noon trains, it was predicted that the total attendance would approach the 600 mark.

The convention was officially opened at 2 p. m. by William J. Schumacher, president of the Madison Shoe Retailers' association, who welcomed the men to the city and outlined the purpose of the convention in a brief address. The invocation was given by ex-President Fitzsimmons of Fond du Lac. Community singing under the direction of Mildred White was held with great enthusiasm.

E. C. Logan, western editor of the Boot and Shoe Recorder, was scheduled to speak at 3:30 on the topic, "Where Are We Headed?", directly after the close of the president's address, given by William C. Schaefer, Wausau, president of the Wisconsin Shoe Retailers' association. The session was due to be concluded by a lecture at 4 p. m. on "Shoe Store Accounting," by Prof. K. F. McMurtry of the course in commerce, University of Wisconsin.

The rotunda of the capitol and all avenues leading therefrom were filled with exhibits. Over 85 shoe firms had applied for show room before noon Tuesday. Shoes of every possible shape, form, style and variety were exposed to the public gaze on long tables bearing the names of the manufacturers.

The convention tomorrow will be upon the busiest day of its three-day session, the program for the day calling for uninterrupted activity from 9:30 a. m. to 4:15. COMMITTEE VIEWS SCENE

A committee of four representatives, Mrs. William Kittie, Mrs. E. J. Hart, Dean F. Louise Nardin of the university and Miss Jane Sherrill, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., went over the proposed site Monday afternoon.

"Speaking just as an individual," Mrs. Kittie said this morning, "it seems an ideal place for a park to me. Of course, I think that the city should own all the lake shores and that none of it should be put in private hands."

The proposed park would be about 150 acres in area, the largest in the city, for the pleasure of a few.

ROY HECKLED AT MT. HOREB

Pointed Out As Author of Resolution Condemning
La Follette

Roy P. Wilcox, candidate for governor, had an uncomfortable time at Mt. Horeb yesterday.

In a strong La Follette community he was heckled as the man who introduced the resolution condemning La Follette at the special session of the legislature in 1918.

A crowd of about 50 people, including about 20 farmers and 30 townspeople, heard Wilcox speak from an automobile at noon. He was introduced by T. G. Lingard, Mt. Horeb banker.

Wilcox was not interrupted during his speech. Following the speech O. C. Quale, an organizer for the Nonpartisan league, stood up in an auto and addressed the farmers. "I want you to take a good look at the man who introduced a resolution of censure for the greatest statesman Wisconsin has ever produced," said Quale.

Quale then proposed three cheers for La Follette and the crowd set up a lusty cheer.

In the elections last spring for delegates the La Follette delegates carried the Mt. Horeb community three to one.

Mannix, Speeded By American Supporters, is in London Today

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON — Archbishop Daniel J. Mannix, of Australia, who was landed yesterday at Penzance by a British destroyer which had taken him from on board the White Star liner Baltic off the Irish coast, arrived here at 6 o'clock this morning. There were only a few reporters and a handful of priests present to greet the archbishop, but a heavy police guard was maintained about the station.

A less impressive welcome for Archbishop Mannix could hardly have been staged than that which greeted him when he arrived at Paddington station. Only the late editions of last evening's newspapers published the fact that he had landed at Penzance and was coming to this city. Therefore, only a few persons knew that he was to arrive at an early hour today.

The police had made arrangements to care for a much larger crowd than that formed by a few priests, representatives of the Irish self-determination league and reporters who had awaited arrival of the train, which drew into the station at six o'clock. Railway officials had arranged for his train to be flanked on either side by other trains, and both ends of the platform were guarded by police and detectives.

Even the priests were not allowed to greet the archbishop until he had passed the barriers into the station proper. Here the police had some difficulty in holding back even such a small crowd, as nearly everyone insisted on kneeling before the archbishop and kissing his hand.

Efforts of those who took Archbishop Mannix from the station to evade the public seemed to lend strength to statements of Irishmen that the Australian prelate will attempt to go to Ireland notwithstanding the government's determination that he shall not.

BLAINE PRAISES INDIAN VICTIMS

Speaks at Funeral Rites on Coudery Reservation

COUDERY RESERVATION — "The Soldier-Indian from Wisconsin made a sacrifice in the world war fully equal to that of his white brothers bravely playing his part as a military scout out in No Man's land in the advance of the army," said John J. Blaine in a speech at the military funeral of the first Indian brave whose body was returned from France. The services were held at Coudery Reservation this morning with Father Philipp Gordon, Indian Chaplain, in charge.

"America lost more than 75,000 of the boys who went overseas, and Wisconsin suffered as great, if not a greater loss, than the majority of the states," he said. "Of this loss the Indian paid his full share. The military scout always works in the danger zone and because of his habits of life and those of his ancestors the Indian soldier was chosen to go out in advance of the army on scout duty even under fire from the enemy."

"I do not want to dwell upon the injustices of the past toward the Indians of this continent. I prefer to turn my face toward the future because the Indian is looking forward instead of backward. The Indian, almost unknown and unobserved, has been shaping his destiny toward the purpose of the white man. He has the same Christian hopes and the ambition to make progress as the race more fortunately situated."

STATE STOCK MEN WIN SUIT

Commission Dealers Must Reduce Charges on Shipments

Thousands of dollars are saved to Wisconsin livestock shippers in the decision received Monday from the U. S. Bureau of Markets in Washington, ordering the members of the Chicago Livestock exchange to decrease their commission charges on cooperative shipments practically 55 a car.

The exchange on Jan. 1 raised its rates $7.00 per car on cars shipped by a cooperative association of farmers but made no raise on cars belonging to a single owner, who is frequently a stock buyer. This was alleged to be unfair and discriminatory in complaints filed by the Society of Equity and the State Division of Markets. The case was argued in Chicago in April.

The U. S. Bureau of Markets held that the schedule of charges was unfair and discriminatory and ordered the commission men to cut down the $7.00 differences in charges to $2.00 for cars belonging to ten owners or less; to $3.00 for cars of more than ten and less than 20 owners; and to $3.50 for cars of more than 20 owners.

Secy. of Agriculture Meredith, in signing the order says as to the existing schedule of which complaint was made: "I find that both these charges and the method of determining the amount of the same are unjust, unreasonable, discriminatory and unfair."

That the wartime food act imposes a penalty for charging discriminatory prices but does not give the injured party any civil action for damages is the opinion rendered by counsel for the Division of Markets to officials of the Equity Society, who are anxious to follow up their victory by bringing civil suits against the Chicago commission men to recover the excessive charges exacted since January first.

Corn Crop Not Bad—While southern Wisconsin's corn crop is as good as it ever was at this time of the year, it does not compare with the same crop in Iowa, according to J. C. Bitterman of the travel and roads bureau of the Association of Commerce, who has just come back after spending several weeks at his former home at Mason City, Ia. A good rain would still produce a first rate crop of corn, he thinks, and would bring relief to good crops of potatoes, oats and tobacco. Mr. Bitterman reports the highways in this part of the state as dry and dusty.

GOGGLE SUIT IS LOST BY MINERAL SPRINGS COMPANY

"Keeping goggles in a drawer in the office without bringing them to the attention of the applicant is not either providing or furnishing them to the applicant within the requirements of the order of the industrial commission relative to eye protection," according to Judge Stevens in a decision in the case of White Rock Mineral Springs Co. vs. the Industrial Commission of Wisconsin and Adam Kraska.

The applicant was employed at a bathing machine and lost the sight of his eye through the bursting of a bottle. The machine was equipped with a mesh wire and the employer was held liable for the loss of the eye. The industrial commission decided that the compensation should be increased in this case by 15 per cent because the employer did not provide efficient guard against the hazard of flying particles and did not furnish suitable goggles to the employee. The circuit court in its decision supports the position of the commission. Although goggles were kept in a drawer in the office, they were not actually furnished to the employee and no effort was made to get them to wear them.

WHOLE FAMILY BENEFITED BY TAKING TANLAC

"It Has Done Us So Much Good
Everyone Should Know of It," Says R. R. Man

"Tanlac has done so much for me and my family that I want others who are looking for relief from their troubles to know about it," said William K. Kuehner, a well known employee in the coach department of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad. Mr. Kuehner has lived in Milwaukee practically all his life, and now resides at 324 31st Avenue.

"I suffered so with my stomach that I actually dreaded to eat, and my appetite was so poor that I didn't relish a thing. Everything I ate seemed to cause a heavy depressed feeling in my stomach, and bloated me all up with gas which made my heart palpitate and pain me dreadfully. At times I got so terribly dizzy that black spots came before my eyes and everything seemed to be whirling around, and I could hardly stay on my feet. I was so restless that at night I could hardly sleep, and in the morning I felt so tough and worn out I could hardly get to my work.

"My wife is really the cause of taking Tanlac, for she began taking it for her stomach, back and nerves, and three bottles did her so much good that she's just like another person. Well, I've taken two bottles now, and it's simply done me world's of good. I don't suffer a bit with my stomach or from dizziness, and have already gained eight pounds in weight. Our children have been taking Tanlac also, and our daughter who is fourteen years of age has actually gained eleven pounds. All the family is enthusiastic over Tanlac, and we are all the time recommending it to someone."

Tanlac is sold in Madison by the Luckey Pharmacies, and in Mazomanie by Geo. A. Shields, in Mt. Horeb by C. C. Robertson, in Cambridge by Ole Bilstad, and by the leading druggists in every town.—Adv.

I can now do twice as much work and I recommend the Vegetable Compound to other women. You can use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. M. Turner Bessner, 186 Appleton Street, Lowell, Mass.

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a small girl 18 years of age, and am considered good looking. Still I am alone. I have no one to tell me what to do. I go to my friends' homes and see their mothers make over them, and I feel left out, as I never did have anyone to make over me. I crave for some one to love me with a good motherly or fatherly love.

He wants to leave enough money to support his family and then we will go away somewhere and live. I am a poor girl and need a home. My folks are mean to me, but they do not know about our plans. I do not want to tell them until we are married. Please give me your best advice. Do you think I am doing the right thing, and could you tell me how he could get a divorce.

What should I say when a boy asks me for a date and I refuse? Several of the boys ask me for dates but I don't care anything about them. I would rather be with girls.

Do I think you are doing the right thing? How can you ask such a question? I think you are planning the most contemptible and dishonorable thing a woman could do.

You must learn to be a "Pollyanna." Give love and overlook sinners. Whenever you see suffering and a chance to help, do so. Before you know it you will have a host of friends. Animals make the best of companions. Just see if you can gain the friendship of some neighborhood cat or dog. If your heart is filled with love for all living things, you will attract love. Perhaps your parents will never show their love for you, but some day you will have a chance to be tender to your own little ones.

To steal another woman's husband is sinning in the lowest form. By the law of compensation you will pay dearly with suffering if you do such a thing. Do not think that riches will bring you happiness. Everything in your life will have a bitter taste and you will find yourself discarded as the wife has been.

You are old enough to think of going with boys. Girls are very desirable as friends, but they need not exclude boys. When you don't want to go with a boy simply tell him that you can't go and don't explain why. One of these days, however, you will find that you want the companionship of a boy.

It is a pitiful thing to think of a girl only 18 years of age deliberately planning to ruin her life by an immoral act. Say "NO" to temptation. Never see the man again to talk to him. If you do what is right now you will always be thankful. No life is blessed without honor.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 16 years old. I am deeply in love with a man 44 years old. He is married and has three children, but he has ceased to love his wife and says he is unhappy and wants to marry me.

Turn your back to mistakes you have already made. Let them be a lesson, but do not think you must go on along the wrong path. The future YOU depends upon your decision now. Make that future YOU a good woman.

This man is wealthy and says he will give me anything I wish for. He seems to care a great deal for me and gives me money and tells me to buy what I want. He wants to get a divorce, but does not know on what grounds to ask for one.

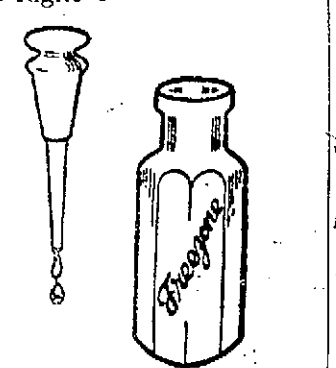

The man cannot get a divorce. It is his wife who as grounds.

BILLY WHISKERS

By FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

Finally the fat cook, with the red apron flopping behind him, grabbed Billy by the tail just as he was going to jump over the chair, and held on tightly, but Billy's jump had been too strong for him and the fat cook stumbled head over heels. Jumping up the angry cook ran until he again caught the goat, and this time he fell on top of Billy, and then both rolled over and over on the floor.

"Ugh!" grunted the fat cook. "Beast animal!" Billy jumped up in such a hurry that he simply danced on the fat cook's stomach. While Billy was doing this, Hans had stopped for a minute to mop his face and to look wildly around for some way to escape. Around and around, around and around the two raced, poor Hans puffing and blowing and his face getting redder and redder every minute with the chase.

Some men had been painting the wooden ceiling of the dining room, but they had quit during meal time. At one end of the room stood two step-ladders with some boards resting across them, and on these were a number of buckets of green paint. Hans had tried to get out through the doorway, but there were too many people crowded into it and he knew that if he got into that crowd Billy would surely catch him, but now he saw the step-ladder, and running to one of them started to climb up. Billy, however, was through with the cook and had taken after Hans again.

Hans, being a fat, was very slow in climbing a step-ladder, and he had only puffed his way up one step when Billy tried to help him up a little farther with his head and horns after a big running jump. Crash! went the long boards. The buckets of green paint flew everywhere. One of them tumbled down right over Hans' head like a hat that was a couple of sizes too large for him, and the green paint ran all over his face, down his neck and over his clothes. Another bucket of it landed in the middle of the dining room table, splashing and splattering all over the clean cloth and over everybody who sat around it.

Billy, having done more damage than a dozen ordinary goats could hope to do in a lifetime, now made for the door, and the people there scattered very quickly to let him through. Billy himself had received his share of the green paint and he was a queer looking sight as he darted out and went flying up the street, with an enemy after him in the shape of the fat cook, who had grabbed down a shot-gun from where it hung over the mantelpiece in the dining room and had started out after him.

The cook was mad clear through and he was going to kill that goat. Frank, however, was close after the cook, and being able to run much the faster, soon caught up with him. "Wait!" he panted, tugging at the tail of the cook's white jacket. "Wait! That's my goat!" he cried. "Don't you kill my goat!"

"Away with you, nuisance!" cried the cook, jerking loose from Frank and at the same time pushing him. Frank fell over backwards, although it did not hurt him, and while he was getting to his feet the cook took careful aim at the flying goat and pulled the trigger.

(Tomorrow you will hear what happened to Billy when the gun went off.) Copyrighted by the Seafeld Publishing Co., Akron, O.

FOR THE TABLE
English Mutton or Lamb Pie—Two pounds of mutton or lamb, one large or two small onions, salt, pepper, half dozen cloves.
Cook well until done. Add a little piece of butter. Thicken broth to a gravy and have meat cut to small bits.

DISCOVERIES
To Remove Fruit Stains on Hands—The best thing to remove fruit stains from the hands is tartaric acid. Also to remove stains from hands use rhubarb; rub over hands before putting them in water.

Well Water—These hot days make sulphur water smell, and it has a disagreeable taste. By throwing a double handful of salt in the well every week will help it wonderfully and it has a much better taste.

How to Save Paraffin From Year to Year—When you open jelly for use upon the table remove the paraffin placed to seal the substance and wash the wax thoroughly. Place it in a discarded teapot and keep it until the following canning season.

mix one-half glass of red currant jelly or red tart jelly with three-quarters of a cup of boiling water and when it is dissolved add one pound of granulated sugar and the grated rind, also the juice of one lemon; let it boil three minutes in a saucepan. Then put in eight unripe apples, pared and cored, simmer gently until the apples are transparent, then lift them out carefully into a glass dish.

Let the syrup boil for five minutes and when partially cooled pour it over the apples. When cold it should be a clear, light red jelly.

Stuffed Figs or Prunes—Make a lengthwise incision in steamed prunes; remove stones and proceed as for stuffed dates.

When the occasion arises re-melt the paraffin in the teapot and use it at your pleasure. This method not only provides a clean place to keep the wax tops during the winter, but also furnishes a convenient and sanitary manner for their repeated use.

As dry cleaning is so high this is a good suggestion for a good many housewives:
One gallon gasoline, one teaspoon ether, one teaspoon chloroform, one teaspoon ammonia, one gill of alcohol. Buy the last four drugs in quantities of one ounce each and use as needed. As it evaporates quickly keep corked.

MANITOWOC—P. Whitcomb, Oshkosh, has been elected vocational director of the public schools by the school board. He occupied that position in the Oshkosh schools last year.

GREEN BAY—Twelve additional local switchboards and two additional toll positions are being installed by the Wisconsin Telephone company in this city. These, with other additions now being made, represent an expenditure of $173,000 for the improvement of the service here. Telephone service in this city has increased greatly during the last few years, making the additions a necessity.

GREEN-BOEHME GO PITS NAVY AGAINST ARMY

Battle to be Fought for Service Lightweight Title;
Boehme Arrives
Wednesday

The fight between Willie Green and Eddie Boehme is being termed a battle for the lightweight championship of the service. Green is scheduled to meet Boehme in the window of the third boxing show staged by the Monona Athletic Club at Monona Park auditorium, Thursday, August 12. Willie Green was the undisputed lightweight champion of the navy according to his managers, while Boehme, a thrifty second division fighter, claims the lightweight championship of that outfit.

The battle will not only be man against man, but army against navy, and as such, will carry added interest. Teddy Murphy, manager of Boehme, in a letter to the Times, stated that he would arrive with his party from Milwaukee Wednesday. Green and his coterie are already established here and are working out in the university gymnasium daily.

Boehme Fought White
Ben Smith, the famous trainer, who is with the Green outfit, saw Boehme fight Charlie White and claims he gave White one of the toughest fights of his career. Ben is coaching Green on all of the bad pointers Boehme showed in that fight. Boehme is a rough slam bang fighter and this ought to be a great fight.

Willie Green is doing a mighty good thing with the money he is making in the boxing game. He is going to buy a home for his mother in Philadelphia, and with the money from a few more fights he will be able to do this. Benny Leonard and a few others did this, but there aren't many of them.

Eddie Raynor is a likely looking boy and looks as though he can live up to all the good things that have been said about him. The Chicago fans are wild about him and down there he is called a second edition of the late Terry McGovern. He has a bad ear from a recent fight but it is hoped it will be right by Thursday.

Johnny Herzog has been boxing five years and in that time has met some very good boys. Among them are:

Frankie Krag no decision 10 rounds.
Battling Briggs N. D. 10 rounds.
Benny Vogel N. D. 8 rounds.
Billy Driscoll N. D. 6 rounds.
Duncan McFarland N. D. 10 rounds.

Walter Grunick N. D. 10 rounds.
Freddie Cole N. D. 6 rounds.
Irving K. O. 3 rounds.
Yankee Schwartz, N. D. 6 rounds.
Herzog has had over 50 fights and has only been KO'd once, that was by Johnny Ertie over five years ago in Milwaukee.

BRANCH RICKEY TO TRY OUT FOUR NEW RECRUIT PLAYERS

Branch Rickey, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, has picked up four new players in Mike Kiercher, Kenneth Knobe, Bob Glenn and Harold Kimo. Kiercher was recently purchased from the Richmond, Virginia league club, the St. Louis club outbidding several major league clubs for his services. He is a left hander and with the Richmond club won 18 games, lost one and tied two, both drawn games being extra inning affairs.

Knobe was captain and shortstop of the University of Michigan team which won the western conference championship, coached by Carl Lundgren, the former Chicago Cub right hander. Like Dr. Lavan, whose understudy he is, Knobe is a surgeon.

Glenn was the University of Michigan's pitching mainstay in 1918 and has since pitched semi-professional baseball.

Kimo is a left handed pitcher who was graduated from Ohio State university in June. He pitched his team to second place in the western conference baseball race.

LASKER AGREES TO MEET CAPABLANCA

THE HAGUE—Dr. Emanuel Lasker, holder of the world chess championship for twenty-five years, and Jose R. Capablanca, the Cuban chess champion, concluded an agreement on Monday to play a match of twenty-four games for the world's championship. The match is to take place in Havana in January, 1921.

That Kipp-Rockford ball game was a real big league game.

Roy Berigan reminds you so much of Babe, he acts so different. This Willie Green and Boehme fight ought to be a corker. Both boys are comers. Some one of those boys will have to pick a soft spot in the ring as it looks like a knockout is coming.

If they only could have had that wind that Carpenter's manager was blowing in this country going against the Shamrock's sails she might have won.

There is Powers of Philly. Anybody who fights in Philly at Jack O'Brien's old fight club has to be a regular boy. That is where Tender, Jackson, Kilbane work out.

The entire card looks good and you all know that De Beau about hooked up for the windup during the county fair week.

Do all your talking now as Ike Bernstein will be here and who in hell could say a word then?

Jack Neu, the promoter, will box at the Labor day card. This boy is clever, and a finished product. Was champ at the Great Lakes for a good spell. This is no comeback, don't forget.

Eddie Stanton, our old friend Green's manager, is here, one of the best liked men in the boxing game. And don't forget this one. Eddie was a mauler of the first water. He will be better remembered by the older boys as the globe trotting champion.

Smith, Jack Dempsey's trainer, is here also. We don't know anything about him but when you say Dempsey you say a mouth full, which we hope includes him.

Matt Breckheimer and Joe Schmitt have not decided to go to the fight yet. It could not be a fight if Matt was not there. Why, just about 10 or 12 Elks go over there to hear Matt talk during the fight.

NATIONAL NET TOURNAMENT OPENS

Davis Cup Team Not on Hand at Opening of Newport Casino

NEWPORT, R. I.—The first day's play in the annual lawn tennis tournament at the Newport Casino saw no upset in either the singles or doubles, and Monday night interest was centered in the play of members of the Davis cup team, scheduled for Tuesday.

In the doubles Monday afternoon, N. W. Niles and A. S. Dabney, one of the favorite teams, and Willis Davis and Roland Roberts, the strong Californians, had considerable difficulty in disposing of their opponents, although they won in straight sets.

The Davis cup team, with the exception of William T. Tilden II, left for Newport Monday afternoon to participate on Tuesday in the annual tennis tournament at the Newport Casino.

Capt. Samuel Hardy said the team returned from its successful European trip in splendid physical condition and eager for the tournaments preceding the national championship and the trip to Australia for the challenge round of the Davis cup contest. Tilden feels the need of a short rest and will not visit Newport this season, Capt. Hardy stated.

ing writer, has decided to use a few other names in his notes of the fight this time instead of just using Millard's name of the dog wagon all the time. So come early so he can see you; but don't push.

Keyes McCarthy and Matty Baumanger and Runk of the Kipp's baseball management have been given a vacation by the office manager at the Mendota asylum as all they talk is base ball. Some fans go bugs but this trio has gone nuts.

Of course you all know Kidd of the shop who has charge of the diamond. He is drawing about 100 extra ladies to the games. They just love to see him run around showing his cute eye brow mustach and this ain't no Kidd.

You all know Doc Meehan who writes up the Kipp's ball games, and who also will give a write up on the fight here Thursday night. They never get out the base ball guide or boxing guide books until they see Doc first.

Who was pitching when Babe Ruth broke his home run record this year?

White Sox Wallop Senators Twice and Move to Second; Dodgers Rally to Trim Cubs

Yankees Defeat Indians; Giants Keep on Winning; Reds Capture Double Bill

THE White Sox fought their way to second place yesterday. Winning both ends of a double bill from the Washington Senators, they forged ahead of the slugging Yankees, who also won their game, and are now on the heels of the leading Indians, trailing by three and one-half games. They have lost and won one less game than the Yanks, and lead them by .002 points.

Eddie Cicotte and Claude Williams performed the pitching feats. Cicotte gave a real exhibition of hurling, letting the Senators down with four hits and never allowing Washington to tie or pass the Sox score. Williams was unsteady in the second game, but managed to win because the Sox put enough runs across for him. He allowed eight hits, and four Washington runs scored on account of them. In the sixth the Senators held a 4 to 3 lead, but the Sox batted in two runs in the seventh, and Williams lightened up, holding the 5 to 4 advantage to the finish.

Four runs in the eighth inning off Grover Alexander let the Brooklyn Superbas defeat the Chicago Cubs after the Bruins had apparently batted out a safe lead. The final score was 6 to 5, with the Dodgers on the long end of the score. Bill Killefer was forced to retire in the fourth inning when a foul tip broke his index finger, and he will be out of the lineup for some time. The Cubs tried to tie the score in the ninth and scored one run on Terry's double and Merkle's single, but Al McManus relieved Grimes and ended things.

The Yankees won the first game of the "crucial" series from the Cleveland Indians yesterday, 6 to 3. The Indians displayed loose work throughout the game and their five errors tossed the game away. Shawkey pitched for three times, and in two other chances didn't do anything. He stated that he was troubled by the loss of a diamond watch fob presented to him by a group of admirers, and was too grieved to hit.

The Tigers defeated the Mackmen yesterday, 5 to 2, knocking Naylor out of the box in the seventh inning. Cobb, with a double and a single, batted 1,000 for the day. His average will be close to the leading four, Jackson, Ruth, Speaker and Sisler, before long.

The Red Sox scored two runs in the ninth inning, and defeated the St. Louis Browns, 5 to 4, by scoring another in the eleventh. Davis had held the Red Sox to three blows previous to the ninth. Myers singled in the eleventh, scoring Vitt from second.

The Giants continued on their pennant-grabbing way yesterday, submerging the Pittsburgh Pirates, 9 to 0. Artie Nehf shut the Corsairs out in fine style, while the Giants fell upon Blake in the eighth round and batted in six runs.

The Cincinnati Reds moved closer to the leading Robins yesterday by twice defeating the Boston Braves. Fisher and Luque were the winning pitchers. The first game was won 10 to 5, while the second went 8 to 2. The champions secured 14 hits in each game.

CAMBRIDGE IS WINNER, 2 TO 0

Lake Mills Drops Short Game; Rain Halts Play
in Middleton-Waterloo Contest

The Cambridge team of the Tri-County league defeated Middleton 2 to 0 Sunday at Cambridge in a game as short as the rules allow. The play was halted by a shower after four and one-half innings had been played. The rules demand that a game shall continue for that length of time before it shall be considered as a complete game. Strassburg and Kippert opposed each other on the mound, and each pitcher allowed but two hits during the play. Helmicks, Cambridge short stop, was responsible for the two Cambridge runs. He lifted the ball out of the lot in the second inning, scoring Kisow ahead of him, who had walked. A crowd of 600 turned out despite the threatening weather conditions. The box score:

RAIN AT MIDDLETON.

The Waterloo and Middleton teams were halted at Middleton Sunday by rain before playing the necessary four and one-half innings. The game was called by Umpire Skippe in the fourth inning when a heavy downpour made continuance impossible. Middleton had a lead of three runs at the time, the score being 5 to 2. Assaults on Pitcher Doehring in the first and third innings scored the Middleton runs. As but three and one-half innings were played, however, the score does not count, and the entire game must be replayed. The box score:

DEMPSEY TO WATCH
LANGEORD-McVEY GO

Contemplating the possibility of a match sooner or later with Sam Langford, Sam McVey, of Harry Willis, Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world is making a careful study of the ability of these colored heavyweights. Already he has his line on Willis, having seen him in action against Fred Fulton.

Dempsey will arrive from the east Friday and will be at the ringside in East Chicago Saturday afternoon where Langeord and McVey battle in 10 rounds.

Langford is favorite in the coming clash, the choice having been made on their former clashes. Langeord holds five wins over McVey, the latter beating Langford only once. Several of their matches were draws. Woodman, manager of McVey, and who plotted Langeord for a long time, last night declared his man would go in to score a knockout and that he has offered his protégé $500 additional if he comes through with such a win. It is the old revenge stuff with Woodman.

Matchmaker Larney Lichtenstein has backed up his card with a match between Frankie Izzo and Sam Mandell and Eddie Raynor and Tim McCarthy, both Chicago Heights lads, who are fighting for the Chicago Heights championship.

YAWL SETS RECORD IN CROSSING OCEAN

COWES, Isle of Wight.—What is believed to be a record passage across the Atlantic for a thirty-five foot yawl was made by the Typhoon which arrived this morning after making a nonstop run. It is claimed from Cape Race, Newfoundland, to Bishop's Rock, Scilly Islands, a distance of 2,108 miles, in 15 days and 9 hours.

BENCHED BECAUSE SHE'S ONLY A GIRL

Miss Helen Ludwig in her baseball togs.

Miss Helen Ludwig, eighteen, of Louisville, Ky., who until quite recently played first base on the Standard Oil Company's Polarine team in the Twin City league, has been benched simply because she is a girl. Objection to her playing on moral grounds was raised and the amateur athletic association reluctantly asked her to quit. Helen, who plays at first, has the reputation of being a good batter and fast on the bases.

GOLFERS BEGIN NATIONAL OPEN

Field of 266 Compete at Inverness for American
Golf Championship

TOLEDO—The crack of the drive and the wish of the iron were heard from sunrise to sundown on Monday on the Inverness golf links in practice rounds, for the national open championship of 266 starters, most of whom played over the links at least once on Monday. Beginning at 7 o'clock on Tuesday morning, the contestants for the title held by Walter Hagen will tee off in pairs every four minutes until late in the afternoon.

The best score on Monday was 70 for the 6,559 yard links, whose par is 35-36-71. Gil Nicholls of New York and C. H. Hoffer of Philadelphia beat par by a stroke. The best score was a 69, made on Sunday by William Creavy of Kansas City, a young professional who was only two strokes behind Jack Hutchinson last week when he won the western open championship at Olympia Field club, Chicago. On Monday Creavy scored 72, while Hutchinson took 75 strokes.

Much interest was shown in the play of Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, British professionals, who are again attempting victory over the cream of American golfers. Vardon shot 75, and Ray 72, on Monday, while their companions in a four ball match, Phil Gaudin of Chicago, and George Low of New York, had 78 and 79.

Another invader, George Ayton of Regina, Sask., indicated his intentions to carry the cup across the Canadian border by scoring 76. James Barnes, recently western open champion, who finished fifth in the British meet a few weeks ago, went out in par 35 and came home in 37.

The record breaking number of contestants contains a goodly number of amateurs, but only two who bid fair to capture the title. These are Chick Evans, who lost the crown to Hagen last year, and Bobby Evans last month in the western amateur at Memphis.

KEWAUNEE—Sheep raisers in Kewaunee county are rapidly increasing, according to the latest agricultural census of the county. In 1920 there were 9,891 sheep in the county and the 1920 census shows only 2,009. The reason given for the decline is that the land formerly used in grazing the sheep is now under cultivation.

MARKETS

WHEAT TAKES SUDDEN RISE

Sharp Advance Recorded
After Hesitating
Start

CHICAGO—Wheat advanced sharply today after a hesitating start. The action of the market appeared to be based on a considerable amount of opinion that the government crop report was bullish on wheat, although bearish on corn and oats. Besides, uneasiness continued as to possible renewal of the war scare. Opening quotations, which started from unchanged figures to the lower, with Dec. $2.31 to $2.32 and March $2.35, were followed by a decided upturn all around.

Higher prices for Argentine wheat together with extensive buying for a large elevator interest here led to a further upturn in values. The close was strong, 4 1/2 to 5c net higher, with Dec. $2.37 to $2.38 and March $2.41.

Liberal offerings weakened the corn market at the outset, but they were absorbed quickly by leading commission houses, and a recovery ensued. After opening 1/2 to 3/4c lower, including September at $1.12 to $1.14, and December at $1.21 to $1.22, the reaction in some cases to above yesterday's finish.

Subsequently strength in wheat had a noticeable effect on corn. The market closed nervous, 1 1/2 to 2c net higher, with Sept. $1.47 to $1.48, and Dec. $1.24 to $1.25.

Oats. Oats reflected the changes in corn. The market opened unchanged to 1 1/2c lower, September 70 1/2 to 71 1/2c, and later scored slight gains.

Provisions. Provisions were weak with hogs.

CHICAGO POTATOES. CHICAGO—Potatoes firm; receipts 43 cars; eastern 6,000,000 lb. Minnesota, Minnesota and Kansas Early Orlos 3.10 to 3.35; Minnesota white 3.25 to 3.40; Jersey Cobblers 3.70 to 3.85.

CHICAGO DAIRY. CHICAGO—Butter higher, creamery 44 1/2 to 45 1/2c; ordinary 43 1/2 to 44 1/2c; at mark, cases packed 45 to 46c; storage packed 44 to 45c. Fat live lower; fowls 28 to 35c; eggs 28c.

PLAN FOR JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SHOW

The Junior Livestock Exposition will be held in the stock pavilion at the College of Agriculture, in November is already well under way. The Wisconsin Live Stock Breeders Association is behind this event of the boys and girls interested in livestock and this show will be the nucleus for calf club entries and contest winners and their owners from every county in our state. Heston enthusiasts are already planning a very extensive showing of their breed. The state and national associations are cooperating to have a wonderful showing of junior breeders and their pets. County agents, county calf club leaders and county Holstein association leaders are likewise pointing their training to win honors for their county through the efforts of the youngsters.

STOCK PRICES ARE UNCERTAIN

Brisk Covering Movement
Follows See-Saw
in Market

NEW YORK—Continuation of the liquidating movement in various industrial and profit-taking elsewhere made the price movement in the stock market this morning uncertain for a time. Subsequent buying of the important shares, and a conviction that temporarily at least, the selling of certain stocks had been carried too far, caused a brisk covering movement. Shipbuilding, oil, motor, equipments, woolen, leather, alcohol and tobacco issues made the best showing. Purchasers of railroads were limited to a great extent to the dividend paying group and were induced by the good crop reports. Atchison, Louisville and Nashville, Reading, Southern Pacific, and Union Pacific were strongest. Expectation that the unfilled tonnage orders of the United States Steel corporation would show a large increase caused a rally in that stock from 55 1/2 to 66. Sterling exchange opened fractionally lower but soon rallied to beyond yesterday's final rate. The renewal rate for call money was continued at 7 per cent.

THE HARDING RECORD

THE SEARCHLIGHT, the Washington publication which makes a specialty of compiling the roll calls of men in congress, has just published the record of Warren G. Harding in the U. S. Senate. The following is the record of the senator as compiled:

Harding probably ranks below every other senator in initiative, activity, and accomplishment.

Neither his friends nor his enemies can connect his name with a single outstanding issue, good or bad.

He neither introduced nor championed even one big constructive measure.

He was absent or dodged 1,163 roll calls and quorum calls.

All the bills and resolutions he introduced were local or private in character, except eight.

None of these eight exceptions was of big importance.

His Senate speeches, as will be shown, were halting, inconsistent and generally illogical, with always a reactionary point of view.

As a follower, politically and economically, he stood with his party bosses—Penrose, Smoot and Lodge.

In all matters of spoils and organization, he was with the Old Guard.

Not once did he display "irregularity," being always a strict party member.

On issues at all important, he voted with the progressive group only nine times in nearly six years.

On the prohibition issue he is a "wet," having voted for the liquor interests 30 times to two against.

He favored woman suffrage, after much reluctance and indecision.

He voted for the Cummins railroad bill, with its anti-strike provision.

He stood consistently against conservation, voting several times for the vicious Shields water power bill.

On every important test between capital and labor, he voted with the former.

He opposed public ownership in every form.

He voted against a government armor-plate factory at the beginning of the war.

He opposed the wire control bill as a war measure.

On revenue measures, he voted against every amendment to increase the tax upon profiteering and large incomes.

He opposed publicity of profiteering figures.

He opposed the abolition of secret sessions of the Senate.

He favored secret diplomacy by opposing the open consideration of treaties by the Senate.

He opposed the appointment of Louis D. Brandeis to the Supreme Court.

His first term, he voted against river and harbor pork, thereafter being for these appropriations, even during the war.

He opposed a tax upon campaign contributions.

He opposed adequate appropriations for the Federal Trade Commission.

He opposed the European food relief bill.

He opposed Philippine independence; and was against self-determination wherever else that issue appeared.

He voted and spoke for conscription as a permanent policy.

He opposed a referendum on war as a peace policy.

He opposed disarmament for all nations.

He supported the League of Nations covenant, with the Lodge reservations.

He voted for the present "political" adjournment of the Senate.

The absolute lack of statesmanship in the record of Harding is revealed in the character of the bills that he has introduced since he entered public life. The majority of his measures have been of an inconsequential local nature as follows:

During his service in the Senate, Harding introduced 134 bills, of which 122 were for some form of local pork or pensions.

Only nine of the measures he presented could by any stretch of the imagination be classed as of general public importance, and not one of these dealt in any way with problems now desperately demanding solution.

The most important public bill in Harding's list is one "to encourage the teaching of Spanish" in the United States. Afterward, he flatly contradicted the purpose of that measure by declaring for "the necessity of making this Republic an English-speaking Republic."

Among the other bills he introduced which may be called public, as distinguished from local measures, are:

To provide a memorial for persons who lost their lives in the war.

To provide for a celebration of the anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims.

To authorize the loaning of tents to relieve the shortage of houses which doubtless expressed Harding's comprehension and solution of that problem.

To investigate influenza.

To pay draft board clerks.

To change the law as to fur-bearing animals in Alaska.

To appoint an American Battlefield Commission.

To amend the national McKinley Memorial Birthplace Association act.

To grant discarded rifles to the Sons of Veterans Reserve.

This represents all that Harding has done to initiate legislation in bills of public nature. The local and personal type of measures he sponsored can be summarized by sessions as follows:

SIXTY-FOURTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION
 For the relief of various Ohio financial institutions, lumber companies and one individual, number of bills..... 17

Pensions..... 20

Other local bills (described above)..... 2

No other senator, having served the same length of time, has displayed so little of comprehension and interest in present-day problems as is indicated on the part of Harding in his whole list of bills shown above.

NEWS NOTES FROM MOVIELAND

By DAISY DEAN

YOU never can tell about these movie folk, they are always doing something "different."

Usually it is buying an airplane for their personal use, or dancing with a prince, or adopting regiments, or—but you know the line. Myrtle

Stedman, however, has found something which seems absolutely new and unused: Miss Stedman comes out with the announcement that she does not want to star any more.

Fancy that, a movie actress who does not want to star. What Miss Stedman prefers is to be featured in all-star productions. She believes that only when all the cast in a production are stars there is an artistic performance. She prefers to be one of many "excellent" actors in a picture to being a star with a supporting case of mediocre or worse talent. She is obtaining her wishes in many of her recent pictures, such as "The Silver Horde," a Beach-Goldwyn all-star production; and "Sex," a Parker Reed, Jr., production.

Miss Stedman is one of the old favorites in pictures and was long a star with such companies as Artcraft, Vitaphone, and Selig and Pathé. At present, she is playing in Mayflower pictures.

JUNE ELVIDGE BACK

June Elvidge is back on the screen. That is, the former film star is appearing in silent drama as well as upon the speaking stage.

She is enacting the leading role in Metro's production of "Fine Feathers," based on Eugene Walter's drama of the same name. In addition, she is appearing on Broadway in "The Girl in the Spotlight," George W. Lederer's newest show.

Film "PETER PAN"

At last, "Peter Pan" is to be done for the screen. Famous Players-Lasky announce that they have secured the scenario rights to the play, and that Sir James M. Barrie, its author, will assist in the production. It is rumored that Maude Adams will play the leading role, but this has not been substantiated.

Seena Owen recently was offered a job as reporter on a Fort Worth, Texas, paper. But Seena is not to quit the camera, just yet.

Mack Swain, who formerly was known as "Ambrose" in the old Keystone comedies, is at work on a new series of "ticklers," the first of which is "Full O' Spunk."

At The Theaters

At the Strand—"Sick Abed" is one of the liveliest Reid pictures ever screened. "Sick Abed" will make invalids forget their pains and it will be shown for the last times today. As added attractions, Strand News Weekly and a comedy cartoon will also be shown. "Rio"

WALTACE REID

Grande, a romantic drama of border life; of intense hatred and supreme love, will open a four day engagement at the Strand theater commencing Wednesday.

At the Fuller—In announcing for presentation today and the balance of the week Clara Kimball Young in her second Equity production, "The Forbidden Woman," we merely want to remind you of the remarkable production of "Eyes of Youth," in which Mr. Garson recently presented this talented artist.

"The Forbidden Woman" is Miss Young's greatest vehicle to date and is said that it even exceeds in interest, dramatic intensity and unusualness, her fine efforts in "Eyes of Youth." Will Rogers' Illegitimate Digest and a new Ford Weekly will complete this program.

At the Orpheum—In the long and impressive table of bookings promised Orpheum patrons for the coming season, which opens next Sunday

Voice of the People

FARMERS, ATTENTION!

To the Editor of The Capital Times:

In Voice of the People, I read an article entitled, "Dog tax," in which the writer claims farmers are offering $3 to $10 per day for harvest hands. Please let me know where I can secure positions of this kind. Here is a man who is looking for a position of this kind.

C. BLANKENSEE.
 R. No. 1, Baraboo.

BOY IS KILLED

OCONTO—James Anthony Davis, aged 6, son of William J. Davis, Oconto Falls, met death in a peculiar accident, in the ice cream parlor of E. P. Elliot. While Mr. Elliot was in the rear, little James attempted to look over the counter, which broke from its fastenings and tipped over, the corner crushing his skull. He died a few minutes afterward.

VETERAN OF 102 DIES

BERLIN—John Sheldon, 102, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Neils Johnson, this city. Mr. Sheldon was the oldest resident of this community. "Everyone in Berlin knew Mr. Sheldon, who, up to Thanksgiving, 1913, strolled down town each day to see friends and do a few errands."

JOHN STEVENS BURIED

NEENAH—John Stevens, Sr., aged 79, wealthy retired flour manufacturer and inventor of the roller flour mill which revolutionized the industry, who died here Thursday night of heart disease, was buried Sunday afternoon.

WILL SELL PLANT

MANITOWOC—The village board of Reedsville, this county, has voted to sell the municipal village lighting plant to the Oslo Power & Light Co., at a price to be fixed by the state railroad commission.

day matinee, will be found many of the big acts of vaudeville. Singer's Midgits, the internationally known troupe of thespians, whose tour through Orpheumland, but recently begun, heads the list which will include such well known acts as Kitty Gordon and Jack Wilson, the Morton Family, Roscoe Ails, Herbert Clifton, and others, which will be announced from time to time. The acts to make up the opening week's bill will be announced in a day or two.

On The Side

THEY'RE JEALOUS OF YOU!

Just try to win a niche, my son, Within the Hall of Fame.

Do something that will make the world

Pay homage to your name.

And forthwith, on your best efforts, The imps of hell will frown.

You then will find a thousand arms Upstretched to drag you down.

The yelping curs, which nip the heels,

Will snarl and show their cruel fangs

As you stop into place, And when the starting shot is heard,

A-down the course you speed, Oh, how they'll try to trip you up!

This envious mongrel breed!

But have no fears, my son, just kick.

The hounds on one side, and they will tuck their tails between their legs.

And search for weaker prey, Let malice, envy, and deceit, Their evil way pursue.

Keep on! Keep on! And heed them not.

They're not jealous of you! —Howard Temple.

Speaking of preparedness for the next war, we are not, according to the present taxes, yet prepared for the last one.

A tired business man writes us that he would like to go somewhere on a long vacation where he would be cut off from the entire world. Why doesn't he try a telephone booth?

PERSONAL PREJUDICES.

I have known very few "self-made men" who did not brag about the job.

I have always received more advice from failures than from successful people.

I seldom answer the telephone. I know from experience that if it is good news, the party wouldn't have been able to get my number.

I greatly admire proofreaders. Their knowledge of spelling and grammar has kept me in the writing game for many years.

I know nobody cares a darn what

I think about things, but it is a relief to get my views off my chest.

I have been more embarrassed by the painfully honest people than by the demure.

I believe the Japanese have too much sense over to start a quarrel with this country.

In nosing around for a place to live, we have found that a good many fine real estate locations are only five minutes from the station—by telephone.

A friend of ours wrote a magazine story in which the heroine was not named Gwen, but he didn't tell the story to anybody.

HOW OLD IS ANN?

Adv. in St. John, N. B. paper. Miss Ann Teek has another shipment of furniture opened and its sale to the public.

A motion picture star had his picture in the paper the other day. Contrary to expectations, he did not die of embarrassment.

Any woman who asks $5,000 for her husband is a profiteer.

It is very seldom that "the lady in the case" is a homely woman.

Granting whatever excellence the caveman may display as a vociferous growl-monotone as a husband, according to the divorce petition of a Topeka woman. She charges that her husband "knocked her down and beat her up, left the house and presently returned and repeated the entire performance." Sixty dollars a month alimony and lawyer's fee will be about right as substitute for this husband, she says.

Randall was arrested Monday and at headquarters six empty bottles of Jamaica ginger were found on him."—Schenectady Gazette.

A campaign lie doesn't hurt anybody unless it happens to be the truth.

A COLD BRIDEGRROOM

William Joseph Gaillard died in the sixtieth year of his life at his home near Dacusville on April 6, and was married at Mt. Carmel, April 5."—Anderson (S. C.) Tribune.
